

ACTRESS'S DRIVER FINED.

Miss Burke's Chauffeur Broke Speed Law in Bronx.

Miss Burke's chauffeur had to get up early today and go to the Morrisania Court on Saturday. Motorist Police Officer Murphy caught her chauffeur, Fred M. Koster, driving Miss Burke's car, a 1912 model, on Broadway at 200th Street and 201st Street, on the way to the theatre from Miss Burke's home at Hastings, at forty miles an hour. Miss Burke stayed outside of court in her machine this morning, ready to come to Koster's assistance if he needed her, but he pleaded guilty and Magistrate McGuire fined him $5.

The Magistrate let Miss Frances Harney of No. 71 East Thirty-second street go with a suspended sentence when she explained that she was accustomed to driving over country roads without speed limit and did not realize that she was making twenty-eight miles an hour on the Concourse when Motorist Police Officer Donovan halted her.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, gives teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

"THE WHITE HOPE" A GIRL OF MYSTERY IN HALLERAN CASE

Witness Tells of Merry Parties With Her, Halleran and "Pyro" Another Girl.

GAYETY IN FLUSHING.

Woman Identified in Court as One Who Was at Hotel With Defendant.

As much of Long Island City, male and female, as could do so crowded to-day into the Supreme Court where Justice Kaib was sitting at the trial of the divorce case of Mrs. Sarah G. Halleran against Aloysius G. Halleran, who has filed a counter suit against her, naming Maurice E. Connolly, the Borough President of Queens, as co-respondent. Also, Halleran has brought suit against President Connolly for $50,000 for alienating the affections of Mrs. Halleran. The Borough President was in court today with his attorney, Stephen G. Baldwin.

Mrs. Halleran, who is a sister of the wife of President Connolly, came into court accompanied by her mother and sister, Miss Lillian Connolly, clad in a becoming tailor-made suit of gray which attracted much attention from the women in the courtroom. She had as counsel William Rasquin and Mr. Halleran was represented by Michael T. Schott. With Mr. Halleran was his brother, Tax Commissioner John G. Halleran.

Mrs. Halleran testified that she left her husband on March 1, 1913. She is now living with her father, James Connolly, at No. 15 Jagger avenue, Flushing.

Sigmund Fox, a contractor and builder, testified that he was building a hotel in Flushing in October, 1911, and bought his hardware from Halleran, whom he knew well. On five occasions, he testified, he saw Halleran go to the Flushing Hotel with women not his wife. When he was asked if he could identify any of these women he replied affirmatively, and a Mrs. Callahan, who was in court, was asked to stand up. He identified her as one of those who had gone to the hotel with Halleran. Samuel Bachner, who refused to give his address until the Court instructed him to do so, and then said he lived at No. 1025 Boston road, the Bronx, said he was in the sheet metal business next door to Halleran's hardware store in Flushing and had been on several "parties" with Halleran and women in New York and Flushing. The names of two of these women he gave as "the White Hope" and "Pyro," the latter having been the demonstrator of an alcohol cook stove in Halleran's store. He told of a visit to the Haymarket in New York and of subsequent events.

Carpenter Killed in Fall.

John Janofsky, forty-two years old, a carpenter of No. 20 East Sixteenth street, was instantly killed today when he fell from the fourth to the third floor of a public school in the course of construction at One Hundred and Sixty-ninth street and Audubon avenue.

Anthony J. Brown Jr. Fined. Anthony J. Brown Jr. was fined $5 by Judge Rooney in the First Criminal Court, Newark, N. J., to-day for operating an automobile without having a driver's license for 1914. At the time of his arrest on Saturday last, the young son-in-law of George Gould was on his way to Lakewood and was accompanied by his wife, his brother-in-law, George Gould, and his mother, whose name was not learned.

"Bien Jolie" Grecian-Treco Corsets

Grecian-Treco is a soft, silky and pliant material, possessing a strength and firmness that retains its shapeliness in an unusually satisfactory way.

Some styles are boneless, others have a few bones to meet the requirements of the women who wish a little more rigidity.

For the woman of fashion the Grecian-Treco gives the graceful, classic figure lines, now fashion's ideal. For the outdoor or sport-loving woman, no more comfortable and hygienic garment can be worn—for the growing girl, no more healthful corset can be recommended.
